

events of note

'NUNSENSE' COMES TO VALLEY

The gals of "Nunsense" ham it up behind the scenes before hitting the stage at the Arizona Broadway Theatre. Production runs through September 21.

Left to right: Mandy Rose, Jenny Hintze, Emily Mulligan-Ferry, Renee Claire Bergeron, and Gina Handy.

Photography courtesy of Howard Kuflik 2008

Mingling and networking at the Knoodle advertising and public relations agency during the cocktail hour. Left: Rosaria Glasco-Cain pictured with Terence J. Murnin, Knoodle, Mitch Nye, CBS-5 and Sara Waterman, CBS-5.

KNODDLE CELEBRATES

The August Knoodle event on Camelback and 12th Street brought awareness to the Arizona Kidney Foundation and a $90,000 donation made by Rosaria Glasco-Cain, which is the largest single donation in the foundation's 45-year history.

Actor William Shatner with Jim Piccolo, well-known Founder of the Frank Edward Piccolo Foundation smile for the camera. Piccolo recently donated $75,000 to Starlight Children's Foundation.

SHATNER SUPPORTS ARIZONA CHARITIES

Actor and well known philanthropist William Shatner teamed up with the Frank Edward Piccolo Foundation to support children's charities. Their July partnership with Starlight Children's Foundation helped benefit and transform the lives of seriously ill children and their families in and around Arizona. Each month, Starlight touches the lives of more than 220,000 young people and their families nationwide.

c
l

vs
eir

it
rn.

7 a
cing
ally
of

for all
matic.
acity:
ng
n and

om 93